FOREWORD

I gladly undertake the pleasant task of writing a Foreword to Mr. Hewitt's book on the Law relating to Public Libraries. Such a work has long been needed. The Law upon the subject is contained in an Act of Parliament passed in 1892 and in four subsequent Statutes. It is also affected to some extent by various Statutory Rules and Orders and by the Rating and Valuation Act of 1925.

In 1927 an extremely interesting and valuable Report of a Departmental Committee appointed by the President of the Board of Education was published. In that Report the members of the Committee strongly urged that legislative sanction should be given without delay to their recommendations as to the vital necessity of combination and co-operation, and many other important matters relating to Public Libraries. As these recommendations have not yet received the attention of Parliament, it would be well that those who administer Public Libraries should appreciate not only the existing law, but also the suggested alterations therein.

I do not propose to discuss the matters so clearly set out in this book—I prefer to emphasise the following points :

- (1) That the subject is of real importance;
- (2) That public interest therein is increasing rapidly;
- (3) That the provision of Public Libraries is vital to the people; and
- (4) That, as a consequence, the status of Librarians has been greatly enhanced within the last few years.

The 1927 Report, to which I have already referred, contains the following statement :—

“The public libraries in the great cities, and in many urban areas of medium size, have developed notably during the last generation, and have established themselves as an indispensable element in the life of the community. They provide information essential for the progress of commerce and industry; they make research possible in every department of intellectual life; they aid solitary students in their investigations; they provide relaxation and refreshment for every class of the population. They are administered by men who, working often with little public encouragement, with very limited means, and with scanty personal remuneration, have by their enthusiasm built up a great organisation, and have created a demand by furnishing a supply. There was a time when the public response to these efforts was disappointing; but that time is passing away. The public interest in libraries has greatly increased, and we believe there is now a far healthier belief in the value of knowledge, and in the importance of intellectual life, in all the busy centres of national activity, than in any previous period of our history. In such centres the public library is no longer regarded as a means of providing casual recreation of an innocent but somewhat unimportant character; it is recognised as an engine of great potentialities for national welfare, and as the essential foundation for the progress in education and culture without which no people can hold its own in the struggle for existence. All that we have to say as to the means by which the urban libraries can be strengthened and made yet more efficient is based upon our recognition of the existence of a large number of active libraries, and on our belief that the public appreciation of their importance is steadily growing."

The fact must not be overlooked that particular Classes need Special Libraries. Consider the pressing requirements of those who work in large commercial centres; of those who are employed in our manufacturing towns; of those who are engaged in Research Work connected with Science, Medicine, Law, Theology or Architecture; of the villagers in agricultural areas; of those "that go down to the sea in ships"; and, lastly, of those who are afflicted with blindness. Already there are a few large Commercial Libraries; notably in the Guildhall of the City of London, and in Liverpool, Manchester, Birmingham and Leeds.

There are also important Technical Collections at Coventry, Leeds, and Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and there is a valuable Mining Collection at Wigan. These, however, are all too few; more are sorely needed, especially by those interested in Agriculture, Textiles and Engineering.

The spread of education has created a demand by the people for more Public Libraries. As a result there has been a great development in the provision of the facilities required.

But Libraries demand Librarians. Year by year it is increasingly recognised that Librarians are Members of a learned profession. The office of a Librarian demands not merely a liberal education and wide culture, but also the ability to give wise guidance in the selection of books to those who seek advice. Just as a Teacher is trained, so must a Librarian be trained. The Universities and the Library Association have recently done much to raise the status of Librarians to a level comparable with that of the Teaching Staff.

To Mr. Arthur R. Hewitt the preparation of this work has been a labour of love; he knows his subject; he has made it clear; he has shown what Parliament has enacted; he has pointed out what the High Court has said when interpreting the Statutes; and he has given a complete statement of the law up to date.

His book should prove of real value to Librarians, to Local Authorities charged with the administration of Public Libraries, and to Parliamentary Draughtsmen when alterations in the Law are under consideration.

PREFACE

This book is intended as a handbook for the use of Librarians, Local Authorities and others responsible for the administration of libraries as well as a guide for the use of students of library law. It was decided to undertake the compilation of this work after reading the chapter on library law in the Government Report on Public Libraries in England and Wales, 1927,* in which the difficulties of consultation of the various Acts are freely admitted, one phrase in particular standing out from the rest, viz.: "Each successive Act has effected modifications or repeals in earlier Acts, and important provisions have found their way into an obscure Statutory Rule and Order, so that it is a matter of great difficulty to find out, except after considerable research, the precise state of the law in regard to many matters of importance." It is hoped that this work will fill the want implied by this statement; the statutes themselves, together with all the Statutory Rules and Orders and other legislation, have been reprinted with annotations and notes, the repeals being clearly indicated by the use of italic type, so that the law as shown here is the law in force at the time of going to press. The law relating to museums has also been included. It is also hoped that the information may be of use to parliamentary draughtsmen when the task of consolidating the law on the subject is undertaken—a measure which is already overdue.

Very few cases on library law have been decided by the High Court, and it has been thought necessary to select only a few of the more important decisions, as this book is intended to be purely a statement of statutory law.

In some instances Acts, not included in the work (e.g., the Land Clauses Consolidation Acts), are mentioned in the principal Acts and subsidiary legislation, and for these reference should be made to the Public General Acts, issued annually, or the latest edition of the Statutes Revised, both published by Authority. All the most recent legislation has been included, and, still further to increase the utility of the work, the law governing the supply of books to certain libraries under the Copyright Acts has also been incorporated. In each part of the book a chronological arrangement has been adopted so as to avoid the splitting up of the statutes. The bibliography of library law at the end of the book comprises only textbooks dealing with the subject; papers in the various professional and other journals are not included.

The Author desires to express his sincere thanks to His Honour Judge Sir Alfred Tobin, K.C., for so kindly consenting to write a Foreword. His thanks are also due to Mr. H. A. C. Sturgess, Librarian and Keeper of the Records of the Middle Temple, and to Mr. F. Seymour Smith, A.L.A., Deputy Librarian of the Hornsey Public Libraries, for much encouragement and assistance, and many helpful suggestions.

It should be remembered that where an Act, repealing in whole or in part an earlier Act, is itself repealed, the last repeal does not revive the original Act (Interpretation Act, 1889, 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63, s. 11).

An Act to consolidate and amend the Law relating to Public Libraries. [27th June 1892.]

Adoption of Act and Constitution of Library Authority.

EXTENT AND APPLICATION OF ACT.

1.—(1) This Act shall extend to every library district for which it is adopted.

(2) For the purposes of this Act and subject to the provisions thereof every urban district and every parish in England and Wales which is not within an urban district¹ shall be a library district.

(1) For London districts, see the London Government Act, 1899, s. 4, post, p. 84. For definition of "urban district," see s. 27, post.

(3) *This Act shall have effect as regards any parish which is partly within and partly without an urban district as if the part which is without the district were a separate parish, and the overseers for the parish shall be deemed for the purposes of this Act to be the overseers for that part.*¹

LIMITATIONS ON EXPENDITURE FOR PURPOSES OF ACT.

2.—(1) A rate or addition to a rate shall not be levied for the purposes of this Act for any one financial year² in any library district to an amount exceeding one penny in the pound.

(2) *This Act may be adopted for any library district subject to a condition that the maximum rate or addition to a rate to be levied for the purposes of this Act in the district or in any defined portion of the district in any one financial year shall not exceed one halfpenny or shall not exceed three farthings in the pound, but such limitation if fixed at one halfpenny may be subsequently raised to three farthings, or altogether removed, or where it is for the time being fixed at three farthings may be removed.*³

PROCEEDINGS FOR ADOPTION OF ACT.

3.⁴ With respect to—

- (a) the adoption of this Act for any library district ; and
- (b) the fixing, raising, and removing of any limitation on the maximum rate to be levied for the purposes of this Act ; and

(1) Repealed, Local Government Act, 1894, s. 89 and 2nd sch., which was itself repealed by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1908; as to the repeal of repealing enactments, see note on p. 1, ante.

(2) The expression "financial year" means the period of twelve months for which the accounts of a library authority are made up (s. 27). As to this expression see also s. 10 of the Public Libraries Act, 1919, post, p. 43.

(3) Repealed, Public Libraries Act, 1919, s. 11 (2) and sch. As to limitation, see s. 4 and also footnote (2) to proviso of s. 1 of the Public Libraries Act, 1919, post, pp. 38, 40. Before the rate limitation was removed by the Act of 1919, the limit was extended for some localities by a local Act, e.g., Coventry (see Coventry Corporation Act, 1911, ch. viii, s. 45).

(4) The whole of s. 3 is repealed, so far as relates to Urban districts, by the Public Libraries (Amend.) Act, 1893, s. 2 (2). It is also repealed by the Public Libraries Act, 1901, s. 14 and sch. so far as it is inconsistent with that Act. For adoption in rural districts, see s. 7 of the Local Government Act, 1894, post, p. 74; and in urban districts see s. 2 of the Act of 1893.

- (c) *the ascertaining of the opinion of the voters with respect to any matter for which their consent is required under this Act ;*¹ the following provisions shall have effect ; that is to say,

- (1) *Any ten or more voters in the library district may address a requisition in writing to the authority hereafter in this section mentioned requiring that authority to ascertain the opinion of the voters in the district with respect to the question or questions stated in the requisition : [Provided that where the library district is a municipal borough the requisition may be made by the council of the borough :]*²
- (2) *On receipt of the requisition the said authority shall proceed to ascertain by means of voting papers the opinion of the voters with respect to the said question or questions ; but the said authority shall not ascertain the opinion of the voters on any question with respect to the limitation of the rate unless required to do so by the requisition, [or with respect to any limitation of the rate other than the limitations specified in this Act :]*³
- (3) *The procedure for ascertaining the opinion of the voters shall be in accordance with the regulations contained in the First Schedule to this Act ; and those regulations shall have effect as if they were enacted in the body of this Act :*²
- (4) Every question so submitted to the voters shall be decided by the majority of answers to that question recorded on the valid voting papers, and where the majority of those answers are in favour of the adoption of this Act the same shall forthwith, on the result of the poll being made public, be deemed to be adopted :
- (5) Where the opinion of the voters in any library district is ascertained upon the question as to the adoption of this Act, or upon a question as to the limitation of the rate, no further proceeding shall be taken for ascertain-

(1) In the case of R. v. Wimbledon Local Board, (C.A.) L.R. 8 Q.B.D. 459, it was held that the ratepayers may demand a poll of the voters in the matter of adoption. This method of adoption is now, of course, obsolete (see note (1) to beginning of this section).

(2) The words "provided that" to "the borough" in brackets in subs. (2), and the whole of subs. (3), were repealed by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1908.

(3) The words "or with respect" to "in this Act" in brackets were repealed by the Public Libraries Act, 1919, ss. 1, 8, 11 (2) and sch.

ing the opinion of the voters until the expiration of one year at least from the day when the opinion of the voters was last ascertained, that is to say, the day on which the voting papers were collected :

- (6) The authority to ascertain the opinion of the voters for the purposes of this section shall be [in a municipal borough the mayor, and in any other urban district the chairman of the urban authority, and]¹ in a parish the overseers.

ACT WHEN ADOPTED TO BE EXECUTED BY LIBRARY AUTHORITY.

4. This Act when adopted for any library district shall be carried into execution, if the library district is an urban district by the urban authority,² and, if it is a parish, by the commissioners appointed under this Act³; and any such authority or commissioners executing this Act are herein-after referred to as a "library authority."

CONSTITUTION OF COMMISSIONERS FOR EXECUTING ACT IN PARISH.

5.—(1) Where this Act is adopted for any parish the vestry⁴ shall forthwith appoint not less than three or more than nine voters in the parish to be commissioners for carrying this Act into execution.⁵

(2) The offices of the first class shall be vacated at the expiration of one year, the offices of the second class at the expiration of two years, and the offices of the third class at the expiration of three years from the time of their appointment.

(3) The offices of vacating commissioners shall be filled by an equal number of new commissioners to be appointed by the vestry from among the voters in the parish; and every newly elected commissioner shall hold his office for the term of three years from the date when the office became vacant, and no longer, unless re-elected; but a person, on ceasing to be a commissioner, shall, unless disqualified, be re-eligible.

(4) Any casual vacancy among the commissioners, whether arising by death, resignation, incapacity, or otherwise, shall as soon as may be after the occurrence thereof be filled up by the vestry¹; but the term of office of a commissioner appointed to fill up a casual vacancy shall expire at the date at which the term of office of the commissioner in whose place he is appointed would have expired.

MEETINGS OF COMMISSIONERS.

7. The commissioners shall meet at least once in every month, and at such other times as they think fit, at some convenient place; and any one commissioner may summon a special meeting by giving three clear days' notice in writing to each commissioner, specifying therein the purpose for which the meeting is called. Business shall not be transacted at any meeting of the commissioners unless at least two of them are present.

PROCEEDINGS OF COMMISSIONERS TO BE RECORDED.

9.—(1) Where this Act is adopted for any two or more neighbouring parishes, the vestries¹ of those parishes may by agreement combine for any period in carrying this Act into execution², and the expenses of carrying this Act into execution shall be defrayed by the parishes in such proportions as may be agreed on by the vestries.³

(2) The vestry¹ of each of the said parishes shall appoint not more than six commissioners in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and the commissioners so appointed for the several parishes shall form one body of commissioners and shall act accordingly in the execution of this Act.

POWER TO ANNEX PARISH TO ADJOINING DISTRICT.

10. Where the voters in a parish adjoining or near any library district for which either this Act has been adopted, or the adoption thereof is contemplated, consent to such parish being annexed to the said district, such parish, subject to the consent of the library authority of the said district being also given, shall be annexed to and form part of that district for the purposes of this Act; the vestry of such parish shall appoint not more than six commissioners in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and the commissioners so from time to time appointed shall during their respective terms of office be deemed for all the purposes of this Act to be members of the library authority of the said district.⁴

(1) Parish meeting or council.

(2) As to termination of agreement, see s. 24, post.

(3) As to combination by Urban districts, see the Public Libraries Act, 1893, s. 4, post, p. 27. See also s. 5 of the Public Libraries Act, 1901, post, p. 32.

(2) Where any of the institutions mentioned in this section has been established either before or after the passing of this Act by any library authority under this Act or the Acts hereby repealed, that authority may establish in connexion therewith any other of the said institutions without further proceedings being taken with respect to the adoption of this Act.

(3) No charge shall be made for admission to a library or museum² provided under this Act for any library district, or, in the case of a lending library, for the use thereof by the inhabitants of the district; but the library authority, if they think fit, may grant the use of a lending library to persons not being inhabitants of the district, either gratuitously or for payment.

PROVISION AS TO ACQUISITION AND DISPOSAL OF

(3) A library authority may with the sanction of the Local Government Board [Board of Education]² sell any land vested in them for the purposes of this Act, or exchange any such land for other land better adapted for those purposes, and the money arising from the sale or received by way of equality of exchange, shall be applied in or towards the purchase of other land better adapted for the said purposes, or may be applied for any purpose for which capital money may be applied, and which is approved by the Local Government Board [Board of Education].²

(4) A library authority may let a house or building, or any part thereof, or any land vested in them for the purposes of the Act, which is not at the time of such letting required for those purposes, and shall apply the rents and profits thereof for the purposes of this Act.³

POWER TO GRANT CHARITY LAND FOR PURPOSES OF THIS ACT.

13.—(1) Any person holding land for ecclesiastical, parochial, or charitable purposes may, subject as hereinafter provided, grant or convey, by way of gift, sale, or exchange, for any of the purposes of this Act any quantity of such land, not exceeding in any one case one acre, in any manner vested in such person.

(2) Provided that—

EXPENSES OF LIBRARY AUTHORITY HOW DEFRAIDED.

18.—(1) The expenses incurred in a library district in and incidental to the execution of this Act,⁵ including all

(1) Certain powers were transferred to the Board of Education from the Charity Commissioners by the Board of Education (Powers) Order-in-Council, 1902, post, p. 101.

(2) Power to provide schools for science or for art repealed, without prejudice to existing schools, by s. 8 of the Public Libraries Act, 1919, post, p. 42.

(3) Powers transferred from the Department of Science and Art by the Board of Education Act, 1899, s. 2.

(4) It might be here mentioned that public libraries are not exempt from the payment of rates (see Liverpool Corporation v. West Derby Union, (1905) 21 T.L.R. 469; 3 L.G.R. 647, etc.). It has been said that some library authorities avoid the payment of local rates, but it seems that there is no statutory authority for this.

(5) It is unlawful to include in these expenses the costs of any lectures which may be provided by the library authority, there being no statutory provision allowing such expenses to be incurred. Many library authorities overcome this difficulty by defraying such expenses out of monies received by way of fines or by the sale of books, etc., and in some cases the costs are met out of the borough fund, the auditors allowing such items, provided of course that they are not excessive. In some localities, the library authority is empowered under a local Act to provide lectures and make a charge for admission.

expenses in connexion with ascertaining the opinion of the voters in the district, may be defrayed,—

- (a) where the library district is a municipal borough, out of the borough fund or borough rate, or a separate rate to be made, assessed, and levied in like manner as the borough rate; and
 - (b) where the library district is an urban district other than a borough, out of the rate applicable to the general expenses incurred in the execution of the Public Health Acts, or a separate rate to be made, assessed, and levied in like manner as the rate so applicable; and

An Act to amend the Acts relating to Public Libraries, Museums, and Gymnasiums. *and to regulate the Liability of Managers of Libraries to Proceedings for Libel.*¹

[17th August 1901.]

Amendment of Public Libraries Acts, 1892 and 1893.

SHORT TITLE AND CONSTRUCTION.

1. This Act may be cited as the Public Libraries Act, 1901, and shall be construed as one with the Public Libraries Act, 1892² (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), and the Public Libraries (Amendment) Act, 1893,³ and those Acts

(1) The words in italics were repealed by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1927. It will be seen that this Act contains nothing whatsoever relating to libel, but the Bill, when originally introduced in the House of Lords by Lord Windsor contained a clause to the effect that no person should be entitled to bring an action against any library authority for a libel contained in a book which might be on the shelves of a library. Objection was taken to this clause, and after a good deal of controversy it was omitted in committee, but, presumably in error, the title was left unchanged.

(3) See ante, p. 26.

and this Act may be together cited as the Public Libraries Acts, 1892 to 1901.

QUALIFICATION OF LIBRARY COMMISSIONERS.

2.—(1) Any commissioners appointed for a library district under the principal Act¹ may be either voters in the district or persons who, though not voters, would, if the district were a rural parish having a parish council, be qualified for election as parish councillors.

(2) Section forty-six of the Local Government Act, 1894,² relating to disqualifications for election to or membership of certain authorities, shall have effect as if a library authority, being a body of commissioners appointed under the principal Act, were one of the authorities mentioned in that section.³

(3) All offences and penalties under any such byelaw may be prosecuted and recovered in manner provided by the Summary Jurisdiction Acts.

[23rd December 1919.]

POWERS OF COUNTY COUNCILS TO ADOPT THE PUBLIC LIBRARIES ACTS.

1.—(1) The council of any county in England or Wales shall have power by resolution specifying the area to which the resolution extends to adopt the Public Libraries Acts² for the whole or any part of their county, exclusive of any part of the county which is an existing library area³ within the meaning of this Act, as if the area specified in the resolution were a library district for the purposes of those Acts.³

(2) Where any resolution is passed by the council of a county under this section, the Public Libraries Acts shall, as respects the area specified in the resolution, be carried into execution by the council as the library authority of the area, and, subject to the provisions of this Act, the power to adopt those Acts for any district comprised in that area, being a library district within the meaning of the Public Libraries Act, 1892,⁴ shall cease.

S. 74 (1) of the Local Government Act, 1929, reads as follows:—"So much of any enactment as imposes any limit on the borrowing powers of any local authority by reference to the value for rating purposes of hereditaments within their area shall, as from the appointed day, cease to have effect." Appointed day means, for the purposes of Part V of the Act, the 1st day of October, 1929 (see s. 134).

(2) Any order made under this section may contain such consequential and supplemental provisions with respect to the transfer of any property or rights acquired or liabilities incurred under the Public Libraries Acts⁵ from the council of the county to the library authority of the district concerned as the Board⁴ think fit, but no such liabilities shall

SUBSIDIARY LEGISLATION

Byelaws—Borrowing Powers—Audit of Accounts.

Public Health Act, 1875. (38 & 39 Vict. c. 55.)

BYELAWS,¹ ss. 182-6.

182. All byelaws made by a local authority² under and for the purposes of this Act shall be under their common seal; and any such byelaw may be altered or repealed by a subsequent byelaw made pursuant to the provisions of this Act: Provided that no byelaw made under this Act by a local authority shall be of any effect if repugnant to the laws of England or to the provisions of this Act.

183. Any local authority may, by any byelaws made by them under this Act, impose on offenders against the same such reasonable penalties as they think fit, not exceeding the sum of five pounds for each offence, and in the case of a continuing offence a further penalty not exceeding forty shillings for each day after written notice of the offence from the local authority; but all such byelaws imposing any penalty shall be so framed as to allow of the recovery of any sum less than the full amount of the penalty.

Nothing in the provisions of any Act incorporated herewith shall authorise the imposition or recovery under any byelaws made in pursuance of such provisions of any greater penalty than the penalties in this section specified.

184. Byelaws made by a local authority under this Act shall not take effect unless and until they have been submitted to and confirmed by the [Board of Education],³ which Board is hereby empowered to allow or disallow the same as it may think proper; nor shall any such byelaws be confirmed—

(1) Byelaws under s. 3 of the Public Libraries Act, 1901, shall be made in accordance with the provisions respecting byelaws under this Act. See Public Libraries Act, 1901, s. 3 (2), ante, p. 32.

(2) The expression "local authority" shall include in every case a library authority. See Public Libraries Act, 1901, s. 3 (2).

(3) Byelaws were formerly submitted to the Ministry of Health for confirmation. See the Ministry of Health (Public Libraries, Museums and Gymnasiums Transfer of Powers) Order, 1920, post, p. 103.

Unless notice of intention to apply for confirmation of the same has been given in one or more of the local newspapers circulated within the district to which such byelaws relate, one month at least before the making of such application; and

Unless for one month at least before any such application a copy of the proposed byelaws has been kept at the office of the local authority, and has been open during office hours thereat to the inspection of the ratepayers of the district to which such byelaws relate, without fee or reward.

The clerk of the local authority shall, on the application of any such ratepayer, furnish him with a copy of such proposed byelaws or any part thereof, on payment of sixpence for every hundred words contained in such copy.

A byelaw required to be confirmed by the [Board of Education]¹ shall not require confirmation allowance or approval by any other authority.

185.—All byelaws made by a local authority under this Act, or for purposes the same as or similar to those of this Act under any local Act, shall be printed and hung up in the office of such authority; and a copy thereof shall be delivered to any ratepayer of the district to which such byelaws relate, on his application for the same; a copy of any byelaws made by a rural authority shall also be transmitted to the overseers of every parish to which such byelaws relate, and to be open to the inspection of any ratepayer of the parish at all reasonable hours.

186. A copy of any byelaws made under this Act by a local authority (not being the council of a borough), signed and certified by the clerk of such authority to be a true copy and to have been duly confirmed, shall be evidence until the contrary is proved in all legal proceedings of the due making confirmation and existence of such byelaws without further or other proof.

(1) Byelaws were formerly submitted to the Ministry of Health for confirmation. See the Ministry of Health (Public Libraries, Museums and Gymnasiums, Transfer of Powers) Order, 1920, post, p. 103.

BORROWING POWERS,¹ SS. 233, 234, 236-9.

233. Any local authority may, with the sanction of the Local Government Board [Ministry of Health],² for the purpose of defraying any costs, charges and expenses incurred or to be incurred by them in the execution of the Sanitary Acts or of this Act, or for the purpose of discharging any loans contracted under the Sanitary Acts or this Act, borrow or re-borrow, and take up at interest, any sums of money necessary for defraying any such costs, charges and expenses, or for discharging any such loans as aforesaid.

An urban authority may borrow or re-borrow any such sums on the credit of any fund or all or any rates or rate out of which they are authorised to defray expenses incurred by them in the execution of this Act, and for the purpose of securing the repayment of any sums so borrowed, with interest thereon, they may mortgage to the persons by or on behalf of whom such sums are advanced any such fund or rates or rate.

A rural authority may borrow or re-borrow any such sums, if applied or intended to be applied to general expenses of such authority, on the credit of the common fund out of which such expenses are payable, and if applied or intended to be applied to special expenses of such authority, on the credit of any rate or rates out of which such expenses are payable, and for the purpose of securing the repayment of any sums so borrowed, with interest thereon, they may mortgage to the persons by or on behalf of whom such sums are advanced any such fund, rate or rates.

(1) Applied to libraries by the Public Libraries Act, 1892, s. 19 (2), ante, p. 18, as if the library authority were an urban authority, and as if references to the Public Libraries Act, 1892, were substituted in these sections for references to the Public Health Act, 1875. The Local Government Act, 1894, s. 12 (3) lays it down that a parish council shall not borrow for the purposes of any of the adoptive Acts otherwise than in accordance with that Act. As the Local Government Act, 1894, itself applies the sections of the Public Health Act, 1875, relating to borrowing powers, there can be no doubt as to the fact that loans can only be raised in the manner set out by these sections above, but the authority for so doing is under the Local Government Act, 1894, and not under either the Public Health Act, 1875, or the Public Libraries Act, 1892. As to borrowing powers of county councils, see the Local Government Act, 1888, s. 69, post, p. 66, as applied by the Public Libraries Act, 1919, s. 1 (3). The normal periods allowed for the repayment of loans is: erection of buildings, extensions and alterations, 30 years; for furniture and fittings, 15 years; for books, 5 years. See footnote (4) to s. 19 of the Public Libraries Act, 1892, ante, p. 18.

(2) Now the Ministry of Health, see the Ministry of Health Act, 1919, s. 3 (1) (a), post, p. 102.

234. The exercise of the powers of borrowing conferred by this Act shall be subject to the following regulations; (namely)

(1) Money shall not be borrowed except for permanent works¹ (including under this expression any works of which cost ought in the opinion of the [Ministry of Health] to be spread over a term of years) :

(4) The money may be borrowed for such time, not exceeding sixty years, as the local authority, with the sanction of the [Ministry of Health], determine in each case; and, subject as aforesaid, the local authority shall either pay off the moneys so borrowed by equal annual instalments of principal or of principal and interest, or they shall in every year set apart as a sinking fund, and accumulate in the way of compound interest by investing the same in the purchase of Exchequer bills or other Government securities, such sums as will with accumulations in the way of compound interest be sufficient, after payment of all expenses, to pay off the moneys so borrowed within the period sanctioned :

(5) A local authority may at any time apply the whole or any part of a sinking fund set apart under this Act in or towards the discharge of the moneys for the repayment of which the fund has been established: Provided that they pay into the fund in each year and accumulate until the whole of the moneys borrowed are discharged, a sum equivalent to the interest which would have been produced by the sinking fund or the part of the sinking fund so applied :

(6) Where money is borrowed for the purpose of discharging a previous loan, the time for repayment of the money so borrowed shall not extend beyond the unexpired portion of the period for which the original loan was sanctioned, unless with the sanction of the [Ministry of Health], and shall in no case be extended beyond the period of sixty years from the date of the original loan.

(1) As to "permanent works" see footnote (4) on p. 18, ante.

(2) Sub-ss. (2) and (3), which imposed a limit, are repealed as from the 1st October, 1929, by the Local Government Act, 1929, s. 74, 12th sch., Part V.

Where any urban authority borrow any money for the purpose of defraying private improvement expenses, or expenses in respect of which they have determined a part only of the district to be liable, it shall be the duty of such authority, as between the ratepayers of the district, to make good, so far as they can, the money so borrowed, as occasion requires, either out of private improvement rates, or out of a rate levied in such part of the district as aforesaid.

236. Every mortgage authorised to be made under this Act shall be by deed, truly stating the date consideration and the time and place of payment, and shall be sealed with the common seal of the local authority, and may be made according to the form contained in schedule IV to this Act, or to the like effect.¹

237. There shall be kept at the office of the local authority a register of the mortgages on each rate, and within fourteen days after the date of any mortgage an entry shall be made in the register of the number and date thereof, and of the names and description of the parties thereto, as stated in the deed. Every such register shall be open to public inspection during office hours at the said office, without fee or reward; and any clerk or other person having the custody of the same, refusing to allow such inspection, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

238. Any mortgagee or other person entitled to any mortgage under this Act may transfer his estate and interest therein to any other person by deed duly stamped, truly stating its date and the consideration for the transfer; and such transfer may be according to the form contained in schedule IV to this Act, or to the like effect.²

There shall be kept at the office of the local authority a register of the transfers of mortgage charged on each rate, and within thirty days after the date of such deed of transfer, if executed within the United Kingdom, or within thirty days after its arrival in the United Kingdom, if executed elsewhere, the same shall be produced to the clerk of the local authority, who shall, on payment of a sum not exceeding five shillings, cause an entry to be made in such register of its date, and of the names and description of the parties thereto, as stated in the transfer; and until such entry is made the local authority shall not be in any manner responsible to the transferee.

On the registration of any transfer the transferee his executors or administrators shall be entitled to the full benefit of the original mortgage and the principal and interest secured thereby; and any transferee may in like manner transfer his estate and interest in any such mortgage; and no person except the last transferee his executors or administrators shall be entitled to release or discharge any such mortgage or any money secured thereby.

If the clerk of the local authority wilfully neglects or refuses to make in the register any entry by this section required to be made, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

239. If at the expiration of six months from the time when any principal money or interest has become due on any mortgage of rates made under this Act, and after demand in writing, the same is not paid, the mortgagee or other person entitled thereto may, without prejudice to any other mode of recovery, apply for the appointment of a receiver to a court of summary jurisdiction; and such court may, after hearing the parties, appoint in writing under their hands and seals some person to collect and receive the whole or a competent part of the rates liable to the payment of the principal or interest in respect of which the application is made, until such principal or interest, or both, as the case may be, together with the costs of the application and of collection, are fully paid.

On such appointment being made all such rates, or such competent part thereof as aforesaid, shall be paid to the person appointed, and when so paid shall be so much money received by or to the use of the mortgagee or mortgagees of such rates, and shall be rateably apportioned between them :

Provided that no such application shall be entertained unless the sum or sums due and owing to the applicant amount to one thousand pounds, or unless a joint application is made by two or more mortgagees or other persons to whom there may be due, after such lapse of time and demand as last aforesaid, moneys collectively amounting to that sum.

but neither the transfer of powers by this Act nor anything else in this Act shall confer on the county council any power to borrow without the consent above mentioned, and that consent shall dispense with the necessity of obtaining any other consent which may be required by the Acts relating to such borrowing and the [Ministry of Health],² before giving their consent, shall take into consideration any representation made by any ratepayer or owner of property rated to the county fund.

(4) All money re-borrowed shall be repaid within the period fixed for the discharge of the original loan, and every loan for re-borrowing shall for the purpose of the ultimate discharge be deemed to form part of the same loan as the original loan, and the obligations of the council with respect to the discharge of the original loan shall not be in any way affected by means of the re-borrowing.

(5) A loan under this section shall be repaid within such period, not exceeding thirty years [sixty years],¹ as the county council, with the consent of the [Ministry of Health], determine in each case.

(4) Subsection 11 relates to advances in aid of emigration and colonisation, and is therefore not printed here.

(6) Applied to libraries by the Public Libraries Act, 1919, s. 4 (3), ante, p. 41.

(7) Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, s. 38, requires the town clerk to make a return to the [Ministry of Health] of the receipts and expenditure of the municipal corporation within one month after the audit for the second half of each financial year.

(8) By ss. 26 and 27 of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, the Treasurer is required to make up his accounts half-yearly and within one month the accounts must be submitted by him to the borough auditors. (3) The accounts of a county council and of the county treasurer and officers of such council, shall be audited by the district auditors appointed by the [Ministry of Health] in like manner as accounts of an urban authority and their officers under sections two hundred and forty-seven and two hundred and fifty of the Public Health Act, 1875, and those sections and all enactments amending them or applying to audit by district auditors, including the enactments imposing penalties and providing for the recovery of sums, shall apply in like manner as if, so far as they relate to an audit of the accounts of an urban authority and the officers of such authority, they were herein re-enacted with the necessary modifications, and accordingly all ratepayers and owners of property in the county shall have the like rights, and there shall be the same appeal as in the case of such audit. Provided that the first schedule to the District Auditors Act, 1879,¹ shall be modified in manner described in the second schedule to this Act.²

Museums.

Museums and Gymnasiums Act, 1891.³

(54 & 55 Vict. c. 22.)

1. This Act may be cited as the Museums and Gymnasiums Act, 1891.

(1) Ante, p. 62.

(2) The modification relates to expenditure amounting to £100,000 and upwards.

(3) Only so much of this Act as relates to museums is set out at length, and references to gymnasiums have, for the most part, been omitted. The Public Libraries Act, 1919, s. 9, repealed the power of local authorities to provide museums under this Act, without prejudice however to the power of maintaining under this Act any museums established before the year 1919, situated in a district which was not a library district. If the district was a library district, or at any time after 1919 became a library district, the museum would be transferred to the library authority. The effect of this amendment was that after 1919 museums could only be established and maintained under the provisions of the Public Libraries Acts; therefore, apart from the purpose of maintaining a museum established before 1919 in a district which is not a library district, this Act is of little use at the present time. Museums are now established by virtue of s. 11 of the Public Libraries Act, 1892, ante, p. 12.

2.—(1) This Act shall extend to any district where the same is adopted as hereinafter provided, but only so far as the adoption extends.

(2) This Act shall not extend to Scotland or the administrative county of London.¹

3.—(1) This Act may be adopted by any urban authority for their district either wholly or so far as it relates to museums only or to gymnasiums only.

(2) The adoption shall be by a resolution passed at a meeting of the urban authority, and one month at least before such meeting special notice of the meeting and of the intention to propose such resolution shall be given to every member of the authority, and the notice shall be deemed to have been duly given to a member of it, if it is either—

(a) Given in the mode in which notices to attend meetings of the authority are usually given; or

(b) Where there is no such mode, then signed by the clerk of the authority, and delivered to the member or left at his usual or last known place of abode in England, or forwarded by post in a prepaid letter, addressed to the member at his usual or last known place of abode in England.

(3) Such resolution shall be published by advertisement in some one or more newspapers circulating within the district of the authority, and by causing notice thereof to be affixed to the principal doors of every church and chapel in the place to which notices are usually fixed, and otherwise in such manner as the authority think sufficient for giving notice thereof to all persons interested, and shall come into operation at a time not less than one month after the first publication of the advertisement of the resolution as the authority may by the resolution fix, and upon its coming into operation the Act shall extend to that district.

(4) A copy of the resolution shall be sent to the [Minister of Health] [and to the Board of Education].²

(5) A copy of the advertisement shall be conclusive evidence of the resolution having been passed, unless the contrary be shown; and no objection to the effect of the resolution, on the ground that notice of the intention to propose the same was not duly given, or on the ground that the resolution was not sufficiently published, shall be made after three months from the date of the first advertisement.

(1) Extended to London by the Public Libraries Act, 1901, s. 13, ante, p. 35.

(2) See S.R.O. 1920, No. 810, p. 103.

4.¹ An urban authority may provide and maintain museums for the reception of local antiquities or other objects of interest. . . . and may erect any buildings, and generally do all things necessary for the provision and maintenance of such museums. . . .

5. A museum provided under this Act shall be open to the public not less than three days in every week free of charge, but subject thereto an urban authority may admit any person or class of persons thereto as they think fit, and may charge fees for such admission, or may grant the use of the same or of any room therein, either gratuitously or for payment, to any person for any lecture or exhibition, or for any purpose of education or instruction, and the admission to the museum or room the use of which is so granted may be either with or without payment as directed by the urban authority, or with the consent of the urban authority by the person to whom the use of the museum or room is granted.²

7.—(1) An urban authority may make regulations⁴ for all or any of the following matters, namely :—

- (a) For fixing the days of the week or hours of the day, as the case may be, during which the museum . . . is to be open to the public free of charge :
- (b) For giving special facilities to students for the use of the museum :
- (c) For fixing the fees to be paid for the admission of persons to the museum and for the use thereof either by students or in any other special manner :

(1) This section is very materially amended by s. 9 of the Public Libraries Act, 1919, which see, ante, p. 43. See also note (3) on p. 68.

(2) As to admission to a museum provided or maintained under the Public Libraries Acts, see s. 11 (3) of the Public Libraries Act, 1892, ante, p. 12.

(3) Section 6 relates to admission to a gymnasium and is therefore omitted.

(4) As to regulations and byelaws made under the authority of the Public Libraries Acts, see Public Libraries Acts, 1892, s. 15 (2), ante, p. 14, and Public Libraries Act, 1901, s. 3, ante, p. 31.

(e) For prescribing conditions on which the exclusive use of the museum, or any room therein, . . . is granted in any case :

(f) For determining the duties of the . . . officers, and servants of the urban authority in connexion with a museum . . . :

(g) Generally for regulating and managing the museum . . .

(2) The urban authority may make byelaws for regulating the conduct of persons admitted to the museum . . . , and may by any such byelaw provide for the removal from the museum . . . of any person infringing any such byelaw by any officer of the urban authority or by any constable.

All the provisions with respect to byelaws contained in sections one hundred and eighty-two to one hundred and eighty-six of the Public Health Act, 1875,¹ and any enactment amending or extending those sections, shall apply to all byelaws from time to time made by an urban authority under the powers of this Act.

8. An urban authority may at such time as they think fit close a museum . . . provided by them for repairs and shall give a fortnight's notice of their intention to close the same by affixing a notice to that effect on the door of the museum or gymnasium, as the case may be, or otherwise as they think fit.

9. An urban authority may appoint and pay such officers and servants as they think fit for the purpose of a museum . . . provided under this Act . . .²

10.—(1) The fees and other money received by an urban authority under this Act shall be applied in defraying the expenses of the museum . . . in respect of which they are received.

(2) So far as such expenses are not so defrayed, they shall be defrayed as part of the general expenses of the execution by the urban authority of the Public Health Acts.

(3) An urban authority may borrow for the purposes of this Act in like manner and subject to the like conditions as for the purpose of defraying the said general expenses, and for that purpose sections two hundred and thirty-three, two hundred and thirty-four, and two hundred and thirty-six to two hundred and thirty-nine, both inclusive, of the Public Health Act, 1875 (relating to borrowing),¹ and sections two hundred and forty-two and two hundred and forty-three of the same Act (relating to loans by the Public Works Loan Commissioners), as amended by section two of the Public Works Loans Act, 1879, shall apply.

(4) Separate accounts shall be kept of the receipts and expenditure of an urban authority in connexion with any museum . . . ² established under this Act, and such accounts shall be audited in like manner and with the like power to the officer auditing the same, and with the like incidents and consequences as the accounts of the urban authority are for the time being required to be audited by law.

(5) The amount expended by an urban authority under this Act shall not in any year exceed the amount produced by a rate of a halfpenny in the pound for a museum, and the like amount for a gymnasium established under this Act.³

11.—(1) Land for the purposes of this Act⁴ may be acquired by an urban authority in like manner as if those purposes were purposes of the Public Health Act, 1875, and sections one hundred and seventy-five to one hundred and seventy-eight, both inclusive, of that Act (relating to the purchase of land) shall apply accordingly, but no land shall be so acquired otherwise than by agreement.

(2) An urban authority may, with the consent of the [Ministry of Health], appropriate, for the purposes of this Act, any land which may be for the time being vested in them, or at their disposal.

12.—(1) Where it appears to an urban authority that a museum or gymnasium which has been established under this Act for seven years or upwards is unnecessary or too expensive, they may, with the consent of the [Board of

13. All powers given to an urban authority under this Act shall be deemed to be in addition to and not in derogation of any other powers conferred by Act of Parliament, law, or custom, and such other powers may be exercised in the same manner as if this Act had not been passed.

14. In this Act the expression "urban authority" means an urban sanitary authority under the Public Health Acts, and the expression "district" means an urban sanitary district under those Acts.

- (c) The Burial Acts, 1852 to 1885;
- (d) The Public Improvements Act, 1860;
- (e) The Public Libraries Act, 1892.

(2) Where under any of the said Acts a particular majority is required for the adoption or abandonment of the Act, or for any matter under such Act, the like majority of the parish meeting or, if a poll is taken, of the parochial electors, shall be required, and where under any of the said Acts the opinion of the voters is to be ascertained by voting papers, the opinion of the parochial electors shall be ascertained by a poll taken in manner provided by this Act.

(3) Where under any of the said Acts the consent or approval of, or other act on the part of, the vestry of a rural parish is required in relation to any expense or rate, the parish meeting shall be substituted for the vestry, and for this purpose the expression “vestry” shall include any meeting of ratepayers or voters.

Compulsory Purchase of Land.

Education Act, 1921.¹

(11 & 12 Geo. 5. c. 51, s. 111 & 5th Sch.)

111.² A [library authority] may be authorised to purchase land compulsorily for the purpose of any of their powers or duties under this Act by means of an order submitted to the Board of Education and confirmed by the Board in accordance with the provisions contained in the Fifth Schedule to this Act.

FIFTH SCHEDULE.²

PROVISIONS AS TO THE COMPULSORY ACQUISITION OF LAND.

(1) Where a [library authority]² propose to purchase land compulsorily under this Act, the [library authority]² may submit to the Board of Education an order putting in force as respects the land specified in the order the provisions of the Land Clauses Acts with respect to the purchase and taking of land otherwise than by agreement.

(2) An order under this Schedule shall be of no force unless and until it is confirmed by the Board, and the Board may confirm the order either without modification or subject to such modifications as they think fit, and an order when so confirmed shall, save as otherwise expressly provided by this Schedule, become final and have effect as if enacted in this Act; and the confirmation by the Board shall be conclusive evidence that the requirements of this Act have been complied with, and that the order has been duly made and is within the powers of this Act.

(1) Applied to libraries by the Public Libraries Act, 1919, s. 6. This s. 111 corresponds to, and takes the place of, s. 34 of the Education Act, 1918, referred to in s. 6 of the Public Libraries Act, 1919. The Education Act, 1918, was almost completely repealed by the present consolidating Act of 1921 and references to the Education Acts, 1870 to 1918, must be construed as being references to the Act of 1921. See also s. 6 and the footnotes thereto, of the Public Libraries Act, 1919, ante, p. 42, and S.R.O. 1925, No. 1236, post, p. 92.

(2) In accordance with s. 6 of the Public Libraries Act, 1919, references to "local education authority" in this Act have, for public library purposes, been substituted by the words "library authority." The words "this Act" occurring throughout this section and schedule must be construed as meaning "the Public Libraries Acts" and anything done in accordance with the provisions set out in the schedule will be done under the authority of the Public Libraries Acts, 1892 to 1919, and not the Education Act, 1921. As to this matter see also S.R.O. 1925, No. 1236, Article 9, on p. 95, post.

(3) The order shall be in the prescribed form, and shall contain such provisions as the Board may prescribe for the purpose of carrying the order into effect, and of protecting the [library authority] and the persons interested in the land, and shall incorporate, subject to the necessary adaptations—

- (a) the Lands Clauses Acts (except section one hundred and twenty-seven of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845) as modified by the Acquisition of Land (Assessment of Compensation) Act, 1919; and
- (b) sections seventy-seven to eighty-five of the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845.

(4) The order shall be published by the [library authority] in the prescribed manner, and such notice shall be given both in the locality in which the land is proposed to be acquired, and to the owners, lessees, and occupiers of that land as may be prescribed.

(5) If within the prescribed period no objection to the order has been presented to the Board by a person interested in the land, or if every such objection has been withdrawn, the Board shall without further inquiry confirm the order unless they are of opinion that the land is unsuited for the purpose for which it is proposed to be acquired; but, if such an objection has been presented and has not been withdrawn, the Board shall forthwith cause a public inquiry to be held in the locality in which the land is proposed to be acquired, and the [library authority] and all persons interested in the land and such other persons, as the person holding the inquiry in his discretion thinks fit to allow, shall be permitted to appear and be heard at the inquiry.

(6) Where the land proposed to be acquired under the order consists of or comprises land situate in London, or a borough, or urban district, the Board shall appoint an impartial person, not in the employment of any Government Department, to hold the inquiry as to whether the land proposed to be acquired is suitable for the purposes for which it is sought to be acquired, and whether, having regard to the extent or situation of the land and the purposes for which it is used, the land can be acquired without undue detriment to the persons interested therein or the owners of adjoining land, and such person shall have for the purpose of the inquiry all the powers of an inspector of the Ministry of Health, and, if he reports that the land, or any part thereof, is not suitable for the purposes for which it is sought to be acquired, or that, owing to its extent or situation or the purpose for which it is used, it cannot be acquired without such detriment aforesaid, or that it ought not to be acquired except subject to the conditions specified in his report, then, if the Board confirm the order in respect of that land, or part thereof, or, as the case may require, confirm it otherwise than subject to such modifications as are required to give effect to the specified conditions, the order shall be provisional only, and shall not have effect unless confirmed by Parliament.

Where no part of the land is so situated as aforesaid, before confirming the order, the Board shall consider the report of the person who held the inquiry, and all objections made thereat.

(7) Where the land proposed to be acquired is the site of an ancient monument or other object of archæological interest or is the property of any local authority or has been acquired by any corporation or company for the purposes of a railway, dock, canal, water or other public undertaking or at the date of the order forms part of any park, garden or pleasure ground or is otherwise required for the amenity or convenience of any dwelling house, the order shall be provisional only and shall not have effect unless confirmed by Parliament.

(8) In construing for the purposes of this Schedule or any order made thereunder any enactment incorporated with the order, this Act together with the order shall be deemed to be the special Act, and the [library authority] shall be deemed to be the promoters of the undertaking.

(9) Where the land is glebe land or other land belonging to an ecclesiastical benefice, the order shall provide that sums agreed upon or awarded for the purchase of the land, or to be paid by way of compensation for the damage to be sustained by the owner by reason of severance or other injury affecting the land, shall not be paid as directed by the Lands Clauses Act, but shall be paid to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners to be applied by them as money paid to them upon a sale, under the provisions of the Ecclesiastical Leasing Acts, of land belonging to a benefice.

(10) In this Schedule the expression "prescribed" means prescribed by the Board of Education.

59.—(1) If any person knows that he is suffering from an infectious disease he shall not take any book or use or cause any book to be taken for his use from any public or circulating library.

(2) A person shall not permit any book which has been taken from a public or circulating library, and is under his control, to be used by any person whom he knows to be suffering from an infectious disease.

(3) A person shall not return to any public or circulating library any book which he knows to have been exposed to infection from any infectious disease, or permit any such book which is under his control to be so returned, but shall give notice to the local authority that the book has been so exposed to infection, and the local authority shall cause the book to be disinfected and returned to the library, or to be destroyed.³

(1) There seems to have been no Order under this section.

(2) This section extends to only those districts to which it has been applied by Order of the Ministry of Health, such orders being readily granted on the application of any local authority.

(3) In some localities such books are destroyed only in cases of certain infectious diseases, in others all infected books are destroyed. Where books are not actually destroyed they are disinfected and returned to the library by the local authority. It is sometimes the custom to send any confiscated book to the local hospitals, a practice rather to be avoided than followed.

(4) The local authority shall pay to the proprietor of the library from which the book is procured the value of any book destroyed under the power given by this section.¹

(5) If any person acts in contravention of or fails to comply with this section, he shall be liable in respect of each offence to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings.²

Manorial Documents.

As many public librarians are also custodians of Manorial and other local documents, records and archives,³ it has been thought advisable to include the following legislation.

Law of Property Act, 1922.

(12 & 13 Geo. 5. c. 16, s. 144 as amended.⁴)

144. Any person interested in enfranchised land may on payment of the fee prescribed by the Lord Chancellor, inspect at any reasonable hour any Court Rolls of the manor of which the land was held; and Court Rolls shall (whether before or after the manorial incidents have been extinguished), for the purposes of section fourteen of the Evidence Act, 1851,⁵ be deemed to be documents of such a public nature as to be admissible in evidence on their mere production from the proper custody.

144A.—(1) All manorial documents shall be under the charge and superintendence of the Master of the Rolls.

(1) In the case of a book belonging to a commercial circulating library, compensation is paid by the local authority to the owner of such library, but in the case of public library books the Medical Officer of Health for the district compensates the library authority out of monies allowed for that purpose by the Ministry of Health.

(2) As to offences in Libraries, see the Libraries Offences Act, 1898, ante, p. 28.

(3) For list of public libraries having charge of such documents, records or archives, see the latest edition of the "Librarian's Guide" (The Literary Year Book Press Ltd., Liverpool).

(4) This section was amended by the Law of Property Act, 1924 (15 Geo. 5, c. 5, s. 2, and 2nd Schedule), as follows:—

"2. The principal Act shall be amended . . . in the manner appearing in the Second Schedule to this Act."

The said Second Schedule contains detailed amendments, number two of which reads: "The following section shall be inserted after section one hundred and forty-four of the principal Act." This section to be inserted is reprinted above, 144A.

(5) Section 14 of the Evidence Act, 1851, enacts that whenever any book or document is of such a public nature as to be admissible in evidence on its mere production from the proper custody, any copy thereof or extract therefrom shall be admissible in evidence in any Court of Justice, provided it be proved to be an examined copy or extract.

(2) Save as hereinafter provided, manorial documents shall remain in the possession or under the control of the lord for the time being of the manor to which the same relate and he shall not be entitled to destroy or damage wilfully such documents.

(3) The Master of the Rolls may from time to time make such enquiries as he shall think fit for the purpose of ascertaining that any manorial documents are in the proper custody, and are being properly preserved, and the lord of the manor to which such documents relate, or the governing body of any public library, or museum or historical or antiquarian society, to which the same may have been transferred, as hereinafter provided, shall furnish the Master of the Rolls with all such information with respect thereto as he may require.

(4) The Master of the Rolls may direct that any manorial documents which, in his opinion, are not being properly preserved, or which he is requested by the lord of a manor to deal with under this subsection, shall be transferred to the Public Record Office, or to any public library, or museum or historical or antiquarian society, which may be willing to receive the same, and if the same shall be transferred to any public library, or museum or historical or antiquarian society, the governing body thereof shall thereafter have the custody thereof and shall be responsible for the proper preservation and indexing thereof.

(5) Nothing contained in this section shall prejudice or affect the right of any person to the production and delivery of copies of any manorial documents or to have the same kept in a proper state of preservation; in particular the lord of the manor shall remain entitled to require the same to be produced to him or in accordance with his directions, free of any cost.

(6) In this section "manorial documents" mean court rolls, surveys, maps, terriers, documents and books of every description relating to the boundaries, franchises, wastes, customs or courts of a manor, but do not include the deeds and other instruments required for evidencing the title to a manor; "manor" includes a lordship and a reputed lordship; and "lord of the manor" includes any person entitled to manorial documents.

(7) The Master of the Rolls may make rules for giving effect to this section, and may revoke or vary any such rules.¹

Parochial Libraries Act, 1708.¹

(7 Anne, c. 14.)

This statute was something of a pioneer among the public libraries Acts, being the first to make provision for the maintenance and preservation of some of the libraries existing at the time. It is difficult to see what was its real effect except, perhaps, to provide local clergy with facilities for study. However, it is still on the statute book, not having yet been repealed or amended.

In addition to the preamble there are eleven sections, but as it is of no practical use in the present day, only a summary of these sections, apart from the title and the preamble, is given here.

An Act for the better Preservation of Parochial Libraries in that Part of Great Britain called England.

Whereas in many Places in the South Parts of Great Britain called England and Wales, the Provision for the Clergy is so mean, that the necessary Expence of Books for the better Prosecution of their studies cannot be defrayed by them; and whereas of late Years, several charitable and well-disposed persons have by charitable Contributions erected Libraries within several Parishes and Districts in England and Wales; but some Provision is wanting to preserve the same, and such others as shall be provided in the same Manner, from Embezzlement.

Section one sets out that "where such a library is or shall be erected the same shall be preserved for such use and uses as is and shall be given, and the orders and rules of the founder or founders of such libraries shall be observed and kept." By section two, every "Incumbent, Rector, Vicar, Minister, or Curate of a Parish" is required to give security before making use of the library. He is empowered, by this section, to bring an "Action of Trover and Conversion" for the return of any book or books unlawfully removed, "whereupon treble damages shall be given, with full cost of suit, . . . which damages shall be applied to the use and benefit of the library."

(1) Short title given by the Short Titles Act, 1896.

The Ordinaries of the Church are entitled, by section three, to have free access to the library at all times, and they may, from time to time, enquire into the state and condition of the said libraries and to amend and redress the grievances and defects.

Sections four and five make provision for catalogues to be prepared and maintained. Every new incumbent is obliged, within six months of his installation, to make a new catalogue of the books, which must be duly signed by him, thus acknowledging the custody and possession of the books. It is also enacted that where there are parochial libraries already established, the incumbent shall, in like manner, prepare and sign a catalogue of the books, which must be delivered to the Ordinaries.

Upon the death or removal of the incumbent the church wardens shall immediately lock the library to prevent embezzlement of the books, and the library shall remain closed until the new incumbent be installed (section six); where, however, the library has been used for public meetings connected with the parish, it may be used as formally, but otherwise it must remain locked (section seven).

Section eight requires the incumbent to enter into a book, provided specially for the purpose, a record of all benefactions to the library. The Church Ordinaries are empowered, by section nine, to make such rules and orders "for the better governing the said libraries and preserving the same." It is also required that these rules and orders shall be entered, from time to time, in the benefactions book or some other book prepared for that purpose.

None of the books belonging to such libraries shall, in any case, be alienable (section ten), and in the event of any book being lost or taken "it shall and may be lawful to and for any Justice of Peace within the County, Riding or Division, to grant his warrant to search for the same."

Section eleven is a proviso that nothing in the act is to extend to a "Publick Library lately erected in the Parish of Ryegate, in the County of Surrey."

[“ Provided that the Board of Trade may, on the application of the Trustees of the British Museum, make regulations³ excepting from the provisions of this subsection publications wholly or mainly in the nature of trade advertisements, or such classes of such publications as may be specified in the regulations, and thereupon it shall not be necessary for the publisher of any publication so excepted so to deliver the publication or for the trustees to give a receipt therefor, unless, as respects any particular publication, a written demand for the delivery thereof is made by the trustees. 29.—(1) His Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that this Act (except such parts, if any, thereof as may be specified in the Order) shall apply—

- (a) to works first published in a foreign country to which the Order relates, in like manner as if they were first published within the parts of His Majesty's dominions to which this Act extends;
